Board Charter

1. Preamble

The enhancement of corporate governance standards is vital towards the achievement of the objectives of transparency, accountability and effective performance for Leader Steel Holdings Berhad (“the Company”) and its subsidiaries (hereinafter referred to as “the Group”). Accordingly, this Board Charter (“Charter”) is established with the aim of enshrining the concepts of good governance as promulgated in the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2017 (“Code 2017”).

The Charter serves as a reference point for Board activities and should not be construed as a blueprint for Board operations. It is aimed to provide guidance for the Board and Management vis a vis the role of the Board and its Committees, the requirements of the Directors in carrying out their stewardship role and in discharging their duties towards the Company as well as the Board’s present practices.

Just as each organisation has its own corporate culture, the dynamics of each Board is unique. The dynamics shift as the composition of the Board changes, and the Directors of the Company should always be open to new opportunities and ready to confront new challenges brought about by change.

This Charter is to promote high standards of corporate governance and is designed to provide guidance and clarity for Directors and management with regard to the role of the Board and its committees, the requirements of Directors in carrying out their role and in discharging their duties towards the company as well as the Board’s operating practices.

This Charter does not overrule or pre-empt the statutory requirements of Directors as enshrined in the Companies Act 2016, the Income Tax Act 1967 and other relevant statutes, including the conduct of the Board as stipulated in the Articles of Association which is the Constitution of the Company. To the extent of any conflict between the terms of this Charter and a Constitution, that Constitution prevails.

3. Objectives of the Board

The Board is accountable to Shareholders and is responsible for the stewardship of the Group's Business and affairs on behalf of the Shareholders. Significantly, the Board shall seek to ensure that the Business objectives of the Group is aligned with the expectations of Shareholders with a view to enhancing long-term Shareholders' value whilst taking into account the interests of other stakeholders and maintaining high standards of transparency, accountability and integrity.

Additionally, often, the Board has to warrant that the operations of the Group are being effectively managed in a manner that is properly focussed on those Business objectives, conforming to regulatory and ethical requirements as well as maintaining high standards of transparency, accountability and governance.

4. Role of the Board

4.1 The Board's role is to provide leadership of the Group within a framework of prudent and effective controls which enables risk to be assessed and managed.

4.2 The Board has delegated certain responsibilities to committees which operate in accordance with the Charter approved by the Board and delegated the day to day Management of the Business of the Group to Management, executive officer and MD subject to an agreed authority limit.

The Board shall reserve a formal schedule of matters for its decision to ensure that the direction and control of the Group is firmly in its hands. This includes strategic issues and planning, material acquisition and disposal of assets, capital expenditure, authority levels, treasury policies, risk management policies, appointment of auditors and review of the financial statements, financing and borrowing activities, ensuring regulatory compliance and reviewing the adequacy and integrity of internal controls.

4.3 The principal responsibilities of the Board including those adopted from the Code are:

- i. reviewing and adopting a strategic plan for the Group and to institute a regular and formal board strategy review to ensure that the strategic plan support long term value creation and includes strategies on economic, environmental and social considerations underpinning sustainability of its business and Group operations;
- ii. overseeing the conduct of the Group's Business, supervise and assess management's performance to evaluate whether the Business is being properly managed and that the Group's performance is skewed towards achieving its strategy notwithstanding that some of the subsidiaries have separate Board of Directors;
- iii. review, challenge and decide on management's proposals for the Company and monitor its implementation by management;
- iv. anticipate changes in the market and ensuring that the Group's capabilities and resources are sufficient to manage uncertainties;
- v. identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate internal controls and mitigation measures;
- vi. succession planning, including appointing, training, fixing the compensation of and where appropriate, replacing Board members and senior management;
- vii. developing and implementing an investor relations programme or shareholder communications policy for the Group;

Board Charter

4. Role of the Board (cont'd)

- viii. reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the Group's risk management, internal control systems and management information systems, including systems/reporting framework for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines;
- ix. determining the remuneration of Non-Executive Directors, with the individuals concerned abstaining from discussions of their own remuneration;
- x. ensuring that the Company's financial statements are true and fair and other conform with the laws; and
- xi. ensuring that the Company adheres to high standards of ethics and corporate behaviour.

4.4 In overseeing the conduct of the Group's business, the Board shall ensure that an appropriate financial planning, operating and reporting framework as well as an embedded risk management framework is established. Elements under this combined framework include the Business Plan, the budget, financial statements, divisional strategic/performance reviews reports and risk management reports.

4.5 Appendix A sets of the details of matters reserved for the Board in carrying its roles and responsibilities.

5. Board Structure

5.1 Board Balance and Composition

5.1.1 The Board should be of a size and composition with the benefit of variety of perspective and skills that is conducive to effective decision making and effective discharge of its roles and responsibilities for the benefit of the Group and its Business.

It is also important for the Board to keep its size at a reasonable level (notwithstanding the fact that the Constitution of the Company allows a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of twelve (12) Directors). Boards that are too small or too large may significantly limit the level of individual participation, involvement and effectiveness. The Board shall from time to time examine its size with a view to determine the impact of its number upon its effectiveness.

5.1.2 The appointment of a new member to the Board (as well as for those who retire and offer themselves for re-appointment or re-election) is only made after consultation with the Nominating Committee and it is of importance to the Board that to ensure high levels of professional skills and appropriate personal qualities (relevant skills, experience, expertise and time commitment) are pre-requisites for such nominee.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the qualifications for Board membership are the ability to make informed Business decisions and recommendations, an entrepreneurial talent for contributing to the creation of Shareholders value, relevant experience, the ability to appreciate the wider picture, ability to ask probing operational related questions, high ethical standards, sound practical sense and total commitment to furthering the interests of Shareholders and the achievement of the goals of the Group.

5.1.3 The Board recognises the significant representation by Directors who are capable and willing to make Business decisions and judgement in the best interest of the Group and free from influences which would give rise to conflict of interest with that duty and are also independent of Management. The Board recognises the importance of independence and objectivity in its decision making process. At least one-third (1/3) of the Board should consist of Independent Directors.

8. Remuneration of the Directors

- 8.1 The Executive Directors shall receive remuneration that is recommended by the Remuneration Committee.
- 8.2 The NEDs will be paid a basic fee for their role as Directors of the Company subject to shareholders' approval at general meetings. In addition, they will also receive fees for attendance at meetings and for the responsibilities undertaken on Committees.
- 8.3 The remuneration for all Directors shall be approved by the Board with the Directors concerned abstaining from participating in the discussion of his individual remuneration. Remuneration payable shall be in line with the Directors' Remuneration Policy as set out under Appendix H.

9. The Company's Constitution and Management's limits

- 9.1 The Board operates pursuant to the powers and is subject to rules in the Constitution of the Company as adopted by shareholders in general meeting.
- 9.2 The Management is expected to act within all specific authorities delegated to it by the Board as outlined under Appendix B for Discretionary Authority Limit. Nevertheless, the Board is still charged with the responsibility for the exercise of such power by the delegate as if such power had been exercised by the Directors themselves. This responsibility can be negated only when:
- (a) the Board believed on reasonable grounds that the delegate would exercise the delegated powers in conformity with the Companies Act 2016 and the Constitution of the Company; and
 - (b) the Board believed on reasonable grounds, in good faith and after making a proper inquiry that the delegate (where necessary) was reliable and competent in relation to the powers delegated.
- 9.3 The Management is expected to act within all specific authorities delegated to it by the Board as outlined under Appendix B for Discretionary Authority Limits. The Management is expected not to cause or permit any practice, activity or decision that is contrary to commonly accepted good business practice or professional ethics.

10. Revision to the Board Charter

- 10.1 The Board Charter shall be reviewed by the Board as when necessary to ensure its relevance in aiding the Board to discharge its duties and responsibilities vis a vis the changes in corporate laws and regulations that may arise from time to time.
